Our Civilian Court's Common Law Court of Record Order

The current Oregon, STATE OF OREGON, Legislature aka Senate and House. Each member, 90 "persons", have violated due process, broken their oath and have no honor and cannot hold a position of trust. The specific violation is failure to honor Article IV Section 14 of Oregon's Constitution. Through notification of the Court's intentions, they have acquiesced and defaulted several times including at their arraignment May 8, 2021. Each failed to attend or send counsel. Trial had been set for 1:00 PM Saturday May 8, 2021 on the plaza across the street from the Statehouse at 900 Court Street Salem, Oregon.

All, 90 "persons", of the accused, identified but not named above, failed to appear or attend their trial! An addendum of names will be provided.

The verdict of our Article III, Amendment VII, Civilian, common law Court of record is: Each is guilty as charged in the claim above.

Penalty: Using 18 USC 3571 as a guide, The Department of Administrative Services, Risk Management EGS, as shown to be the bonding/insurance entity for these 90 "persons" above: Is ordered to pay remunerations to each member of the Oregon Statewide Jural Assembly in the amount of $250,000.00. By each of the 90 "persons" insured listed above. Or $22,500,000 to each member. Members will be authenticated from the records of the Oregon Statewide Jural Assembly's status forms. Each guilty party will be personally liable and responsible to pay the penalty should the DAS Risk Management not indemnify them.

Additionally: as they have been found to be without honor, they cannot hold a position of trust and are not to receive further remunerations and are considered to be unemployable. They must vacate their elected office immediately.

Additionally: as they have been found to be without honor, they cannot hold a position of trust and are not considered to be bondable/insurable. They must vacate their elected office immediately.

Additionally: The penalty for the insertion of Article VII amended will be determined at a future date.
